

1 Adding an RSS Feed to IE Favourites

In Internet Explorer navigate to the desired RSS feed link and click on it.

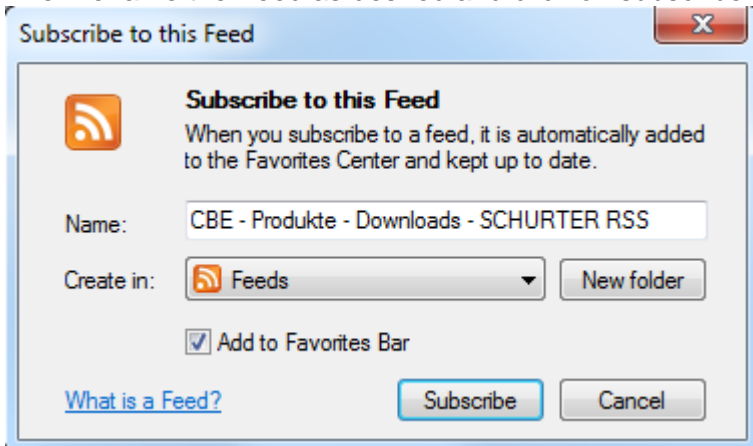

The RSS articles can now be viewed. If you would like to subscribe to this feed, click on the subscribe button.

Creation date	Created by	Release date	Released by	Revision	Page
22.02.2013	MCA	22.03.2013	MCA		1 von 3

Then rename the Feed as desired and click on subscribe.

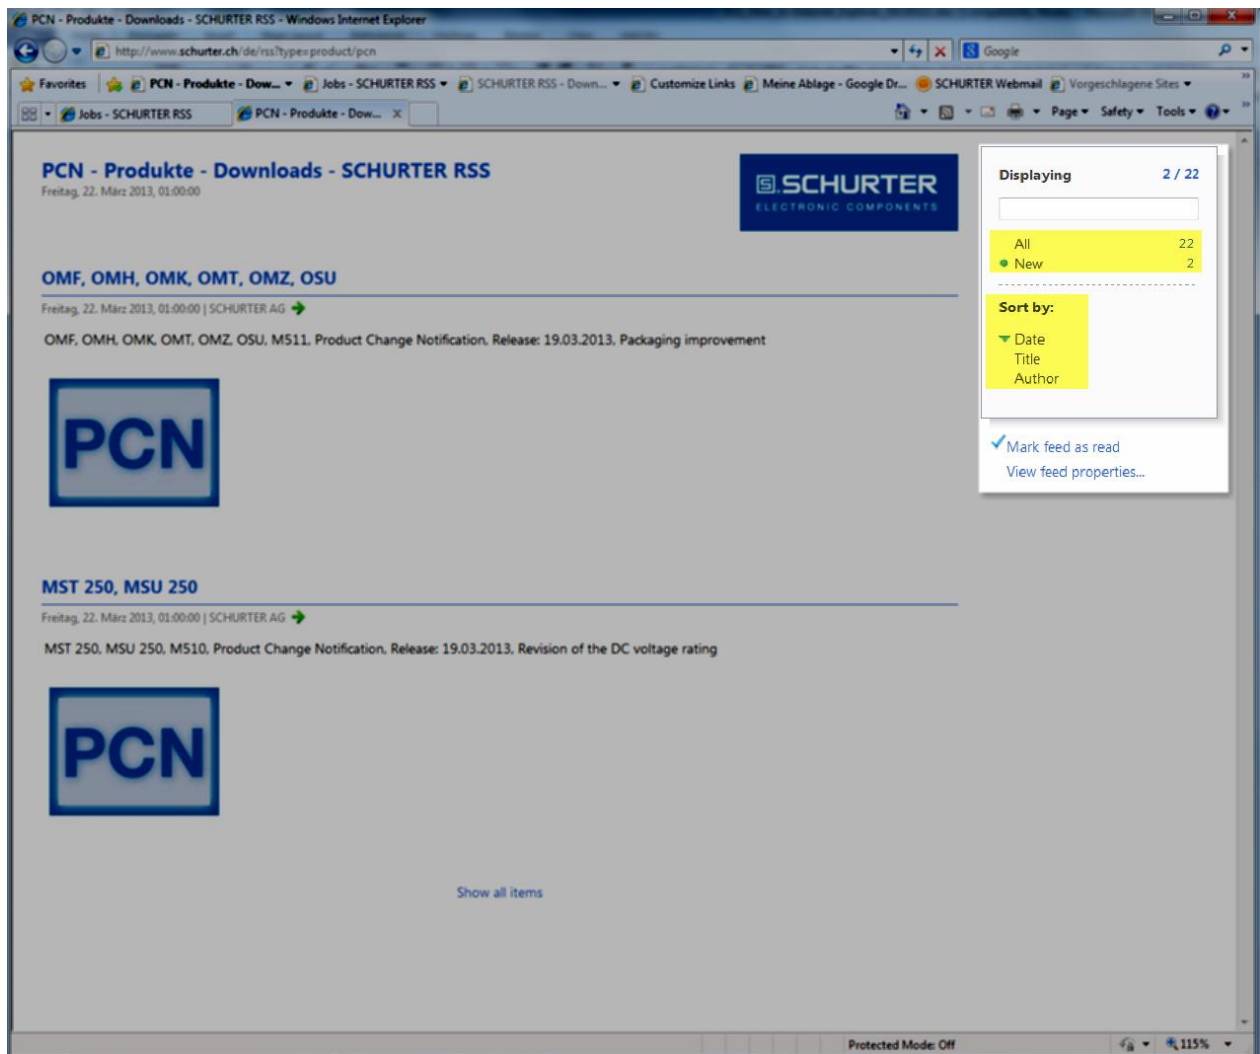

The feed now appears in your Favourites. The highlighted feeds below have unread feeds denoted by being in bold.

In the box in the top left hand corner, you can choose to only see the new items or all of them, and you can also filter them by date, title or author.

Clicking on the title allows you to download the file (in this case a Product Content Sheet).
